MEETINGS

At 7pm on the last Wednesday of the month in the classroom behind the greenhouses at the North end of Finchale Training College unless otherwise stated below.

25th March Ian Reader from Durham Trading Standards Office will give talk about trading standards in relation to honey. If you want to sell you honey need to know about this subject.

29th April Tom Retig from Cleveland BKA gives a talk about disease.

27th May Don't know yet.

24th June Members are invited to Malcolm Proud's home, Premnagar, (2nd house east of Duke of Wellington traffic lights) for a BBQ. Fire will be burning brightly at 7pm

The annual classes for beginners and, if needed, intermediate beekeepers will commence on Thursday 7th May 2009.

They will be held at our new apiary site and classroom at Finchale College.

These popular classes will be run by Trevor Green and George Eames whose contact details are on the back cover.

The classes are popular so prior booking would be a good idea.

Hi my name is Paul Bedding.

We are currently in the process of opening a farm shop at Seaham and we would like to stock locally made products such as honey, jams. If you are interested and able to supply us with them please let us know.

If you require any further details or prefer to chat about it then please contact me on 01915810435 or 07920132191 and I will only be pleased to talk. Thank you
